TWENTY THIRD SUNDAY OF THE YEAR (Year A)
10th September 2017 Mass Book Page 71

Dear Parishioners

This weekend we begin our Blessing of the Graves and will be at St Paul's Cemetery for 3.00pm. We will gather at the chapel for a short prayer service, followed by individual grave blessings. Over the following weeks we will be at Canley, Lenton's Lane and London Road. The schools are now back and we will have our first school masses of the term this Tuesday at Christ the King and Wednesday at St Augustine's. It will also be a chance for the children to say goodbye to Fr Andrew. We will be arranging a parish farewell and collection in October and I will give you the details of that next week.

Fr Andrew will be leaving the Parish to take up his appointment at Whitnash on Monday 18th September.

Our thanks to all who helped make the Family Camp so successful. In total we had 170 people over the weekend. We were blessed with lovely weather and our thanks to Carmel Keane and all the youth helpers who worked so hard to make sure everything ran smoothly. We have provisionally booked for next year and the dates will be Friday 31st August to Sunday 2nd September. Thanks to those who supported the Harvington Pilgrimage as well.

The first meeting of the "Gift" prayer group was well attended and they will meet again on Thursday 5th October at 7.30pm and again on Thursday 2nd November (the first Thursdays of each month).

This week our Year 7 pupils are invited to come to our Parish Youth Group. The first session will be this Tuesday 12th September at 6.30pm, so please encourage any Year 7 or 8 pupils to come along. It's a good and friendly group to join. New members are always welcome. Could parents please encourage their children to come along.

There is a Godiva event in Broadgate this weekend, Sunday 10th September at 3.00pm to mark 950 years of Lady Godiva. On Sunday 17th September at meetyin3.30pm the Archbishop will celebrate an Intercultural Mass at St John Fisher Church. All from the Deanery are welcome at both of these events.

The last Monday evening Mass will be on this Monday 11th September. However, the Deacons are willing to have a Communion Service each Monday at 7.00pm so that the routine continues and we can have the Divine Mercy prayers each month as well. I know some of you welcome the Monday evening service, so please note, this will continue and will appear on the weekly rota sheet.

There will be the usual Sunday afternoon walk and we will meet on the car park at 3pm for a local route.

We will begin a series of "Talks on the Faith" in October and I will give details of this series next week. We will follow the New Alpha series of talks.

One of our parishioners, Paul Nolan is reading extracts from the "Window", a war time story, on Sunday 10th September from 12 Noon to 4.00pm. Further details are on the noticeboard at the back of the Church.

There is also a new film called "The Case for Christ" which will be opening at the Showcase cinema Coventry for three days on Friday 15th, Saturday 16th and Monday 18th September. It tells a story of an atheist's conversion to Christianity. If there is interest it might run for longer.

For those involved in the children's Liturgy, there will be a meeting this Thursday, 14th September at 7.00pm in the Library.

The Mass Intentions book is now open for 2018. You can book a Mass at the Parish Office or you may wish to write down your request along with your contact details and we can confirm the booking with you. This may save you a visit and having to wait. God bless

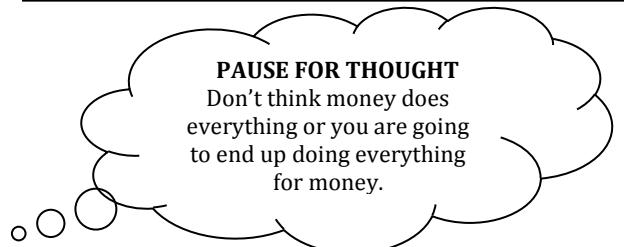

Fr Tom
