Dear Parishioners

This weekend Bishop Kenney will be Confirming children from Christ the King. He will also be with us next weekend for another Saturday morning Confirmation at 10.00am. Please note that there won't be Confessions on Saturday mornings until 7th July. This week we will be celebrating the Feast of St Peter and St Paul on Friday. It is a Holy Day of Obligation and there are four Masses to choose from. Please try and come along. There is a 9.15am, 12 Noon and 7pm at Christ the King and a 10.30am at St Augustine's. Please pray for Christ the King School who will be having an RE Inspection from the Diocese this Thursday and Friday.

Next weekend, we will also welcome a Verona Father from the Comboni Missionaries who will be making an appeal in the Parish.

We have new hymn books at Christ the King and will start using them this week. Please try to treat them with care as they have been an expensive purchase. I am hoping that it will help improve our singing!

As mentioned last week, we received the "Live Simply" Award from CAFOD to mark the work done by our Justice and Peace Group and it acknowledges the many ways in which the Parish tries to reach out to the community, especially those in need. We have been given a plaque to mark the award and this will be fixed in the entrance of the Church. One of the local CAFOD workers will visit the Parish in the near future to present the Award.

The Deanery is organising a bus to Hednesford on Sunday July 1st, leaving Christ the King at 1.30pm returning at 8.00pm. Please ring the Presbytery if you would like to book a place. The cost will be £8.

We have a Blessed Sacrament Procession and family picnic on Sunday 8th July as part of our 12 Noon Mass. We will process down to the school site on Scots Lane and the school ground will be available for a picnic. We would like the
