EPIPHANY OF THE LORD (Year C)
6th January 2019 Mass Book Page 48

Dear Parishioners,

This week we welcome Sean Gough to the Parish. Sean is a student Priest studying at Oscott College. He is now in his fifth year at Oscott and will be Ordained Deacon this summer and please God a Priest in the summer in 2020. He is here for three weeks to gain some parish experience and will be working with me, the Deacons and at our schools. He will also be visiting the hospital twice a week to gain some chaplaincy experience there. I am sure you will make him welcome and he will speak at all the masses next weekend. He will also try to visit as many of the Parish Groups as he can.

This week we begin our Talks on the Faith. These are on Thursday nights at 7.00pm in the Library and there is a full programme of dates and topics at the back of Church and on the notice boards. Please encourage people to come along to this. It is suitable for anyone wanting to come into the Church at Easter or for anyone who wants to improve their knowledge of the Catholic faith.

As mentioned in last week's Pastoral Letter from the Archbishop, there will be a Mass at St Chad's Cathedral on 3rd February at 11.00am to celebrate "Marriage" and particularly for those celebrating significant anniversaries, or anyone preparing for marriage this coming year. There is a signup sheet at the back of the Church if you would like to attend and if there are enough numbers we can organise a coach. I am sure it will be a lovely occasion and would encourage married couples to attend.

On Saturday, 2nd February our 6.00pm Mass will be offered for families who have lost a baby during pregnancy or in the early days after their birth. This is an initiative from the Life Charity and it will allow us to offer prayers and support families who will have been affected by a sad loss. If you know of

This weekend we will celebrate the Feast of the Epiphany. We are starting our planning for Lourdes next May. We need to have an idea of numbers, so if you are interested could you please let the office know as we need to start securing flights and hotels. The approximate price will be £675 for six nights, Full Board.

There is a new Tea Rota available in the Library.

Our schools return this week and all of the parish groups will be back to normal.

With the cold weather, could we ensure that the heaters in Church are left on. Some people take it upon themselves to turn them off and then they are left off and affect the heating for the next morning. If you are too warm just change where you are sitting!

I am sad to announce the death of Fr Eugene Nee. Fr Eugene retired to Coventry after his time as a Priest in the American Airforce. Many of you will know him and his funeral will be held here at Christ the King and I will let you know arrangements as soon as possible. Please remember him in your prayers.

God bless

Fr Tom
