THIRD SUNDAY OF THE YEAR (Year C)
27th January 2019 Mass Book Page 56

Dear Parishioners,

Next weekend we will have our 6.00pm Mass in special memory of those affected by the loss of a baby in pregnancy or in early life. We will have a shrine around the baptism font so that people can light candles in memory of loved ones, and we will also have prayer cards available. Please let people know about this mass, it might help bring some comfort and support and help to heal some difficult memories.

Next weekend, on Sunday morning we have arranged for a coach from Christ the King, leaving at 9.30am for the Mass with the Archbishop in the Cathedral for the Celebration of Marriage. It is especially for those celebrating special anniversaries. Please let us know by Wednesday at the latest, if you have not already done so, so that we have accurate numbers. We have approximately forty people already signed up to go. I am sure it will be a very special occasion. Congratulations to all of those celebrating wedding anniversaries. Later in the year we will have the chance to renew marriage vows at all of our masses as we do each year.

Our Talks on the Faith continue at 7.00pm this Thursday and the topic of the talk is the "Bible". Anyone is welcome to come along to this talk.

Thanks to all those who have expressed an interest in going to Lourdes. We have now filled the 40 places available for the parish and our Youth Group have 25 travelling. We will have a group of 65 from the parish. We can still have the option of booking through the Diocese, this will be slightly more expensive but you can still stay in the same hotel AS the parish group.

This week again, we ask to remember those who have died. We have some more funerals this week, two of these are for younger people so please remember them and their families in your prayers.

Thanks to all in the parish centre who helped with the National Charismatic Renewal Service last Saturday. 200 people attended the event and were very happy with their welcome and the facilities provided by the parish.

Fr Michael Stack has written a book about his time as a Hospital Chaplain. It is entitled "Lord when did we see you sick?" It is a series of prayerful meditations based on visits to patients he has made over the years. It is on sale in our parish shop at the back of church. It is priced at £5 and all profits go to the Catholic Nurse Guild. It will be a lovely book for anyone working in the medical profession and looking for inspiration and for any carers or anyone dealing with illness themselves.

Our Community Lunch will start up again in February and is on Monday 4th February. Because it is so popular, admission is by ticket and tickets are on sale after each of the masses this weekend, priced at £10 to include lunch, entertainment, raffle etc. Our thanks to all of those who work so hard to organise this.

Sean Gough, the student Priest who was with us for the last three weeks, thanks you all for your welcome and encouragement. He has now returned to his studies at Oscott. God bless

Fr Tom

PAUSE FOR THOUGHT

Our job is to love others without stopping to inquire whether or not they are worthy. That is not our business and, in fact, it is nobody's business. What we are asked to do is to love, and this love itself will render both ourselves and our neighbours worthy.
